27 Reasons to Work at the IIMCB

Organization

- 1. The highest scientific category A+ from the Ministry of Science and Higher Education in Poland.
- 2. Specialization in rapidly growing fields of RNA and cell biology.
- A unique legal status based on the agreement between the Polish Government and UNESCO, which guarantees independence and the international character of the IIMCB.

Work environment

- 9. Professional and collaborative work environment.
- 10. English as the official language of communication.
- 11. Flat management structure.

- 4.
- Operates based on the standards of leading scientific institutions in the world.
- Supervised by the International Advisory Board consisting of eminent scientists from all over the world, including Professor Aaron Ciechanover, a Nobel Prize laureate.
- 6. One of the leaders among research institutes in Poland in terms of obtaining EU funds.

- Publications in renowned scientific journals.
- Dynamic growth thanks to the RACE project. The Institute is on its way to become the center of excellence in RNA and cell biology.

- 12. Comprehensive support for foreigners (processing of documents related to residency, assistance in finding accommodation, 24/7 emergency number etc.)
- 13. Mentoring program for researchers.
- 14.

15.

7.

8.

- Efficient and friendly administration.
- Close institutional cooperation with the leading scientific centers in Europe within the EU-LIFE alliance and RACE project.

Work culture

- 16. "HR Excellence in Research" standard.
- 17. Organized work system with clearly defined premises, goals, and tasks.

Benefits

- 21. 13th salary.
- 22. 36 days of annual leave for scientific staff.
- 23. Additional paid annual leave up to 36 days for non-scientific staff.

- 18. A culture of personal development.
- 19. Flexible working hours.
- 20. Hybradm
 - Hybrid work mode for administration with up to 50% remote work.

- 24. Competitive scholarships for PhD students.
- 25. Co-financing of private healthcare.

26. Co-funding for training and language courses.

27. Access to social benefit packages: subsidies for vacations, sports card and cultural activities, nursery and pre-school, and holiday benefits.